DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT.

Hon. Horatio Seymour,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

Gen. F. P. Blair, Jr.,

OF MISSOURI.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

AUDITOR GENERAL.

Hon. Charles E. Boyle, Fayette co.

SHERIFF GENERAL.

Gen. Wellington H. Ent, Columbia co.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

To the Democratic Voters of Adams county:

At a meeting of the Democratic County Committee, the following resolution was adopted:

That the Democratic election of the county committee be held at the usual place on the 1st day of August, from 7 o'clock to 10 o'clock, P.M., except in Gettysburg, where it will meet from 7 to 9 o'clock, to select delegates to meet at the County, to be held on Monday, the 1st day of August, at 10 o'clock, A.M., to nominate candidates for County officers—appoint Congressional and Senatorial committees, and transact such other business as may be deemed expedient.

W. A. DUNCAN,

Chairman Dem. Co. Com.

J. H. ELLIOTT, Sec'y.

JULY 21, 1868.

ADDRESS OF THE DEMOCRATIC

STATE COMMITTEE.

DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE, ROOMS,

CRAWFORD, PA., JULY 21, 1868.

Democrats of Pennsylvania:

THE HOUR FOR WORK HAS COME!

We earnestly invite you to organize for victory.

Attention to details, persevering energy, organization and discipline will bring triumph to your principles.

Zeal and perseverance in every democratic, and thorough organization in every locality, are the true roads to success.

Superficial effort, noise and parade are vain. The stake is a mighty one, and must be won by systematic work and business-like energy.

Pennsylvania is the battleground.

At the October election the enemy will make their most determined effort.

You occupy the post of honor—in the vanguard of the Democratic army!

You have proven your ability to carry the State; and individual effort, faith in your principles and courage in their maintenance now, will enable you to count your majority by tens of thousands.

The drift of the tide is toward you; the evidences of changes are substant; and it is apparent that the political revolution now in progress will end in the utter overthrow of Radica-lism.

Let us labor to deserve so propitious a result.

We invoke you, then, to energetic action, to close attention to the details of your organization, to the formation of clubs, to the conversion of voters, to the enthusiastic support of your candidates—Seymour, the statesman, and Blair, the gallant soldier.

Let us recognize in their names the symbols of change, the representatives of hatred to Radicalism, and extending the hand of fellowship to all who will aid us in saving the Republican, Conservative and Democrats will move forward under their banner, as a mighty phalanx, united, determined and irresistible.

Let your warfare be aggressive.

On Deced towers. The Radicals in power are responsible for the unhappy condition of our country. Charge up on them their extravagance and their crimes. Demand of them an account for your treasure wasted, your Union not restored, your race degraded, your business destroyed and your Government prostrated.

Let your rallying cries be, A GOV-ERNMENT OF WHITE MEN; EQUAL

TAXATION; ONE CURRENCY FOR ALL.

Organize! Organize! Organize!

To work! To work! To work!

By order of the Democratic State Committee.

WILLIAM A. WALLACE,

Chairman.

CONGRESS "RECORDS."

Congress on Monday took a recess until the 21st of September, to be then again called together by Mr. Mc-Cormack, chairman of the Senate, and Mr. Schenck, chairman of said committee of the House, shall deem it expedient, and accordingly notify the Republican members on or before the 19th of that month.

Thus it is under Radical rule. The legislation of the country left at the option of a few Radical leaders, to whom is given the power to say when the representatives elected as lawmakers by the people shall meet to perform their solemn trust.

Nearly all the measures calculated to benefit the colored people, but in some consolation that even the most inflexible failed alone. Among the latter the bill to arm the blacks of the South.

The only reason for a recess, instead of a final adjournment, must be traced to the fact of the Radicals that their richly "unbecoming" project cannot stand alone until the Presidential elections.

RADICAL POLITICIANS, it is said, are studying geography, but never map they examine the strange to say, a "half river" on it.

OLD THAD. AFFICTION.

Trouble among the Radicals of Lancaster County.

Thaddeus Stevens' "greenback" speech has produced great commotion in the Radical hive of Lancaster county. Whilst few of the leaders seem willing to adhere to the "old commoner" in the land he has taken, many are out-spoken in condemnation and only at the public, but of Stevens himself. The Lancaster boldly repudiates him. In a two-column editorial it severely reviews the speech, and concludes as follows:

But Mr. Stevens, elected and sustained by the Republican party, the representative of this district, not only openly colored, the Pendleton theory of paying the National debt by the election of the Copperhead candidates, "even though a woman than Seymour headed the ticket."

Under such circumstances we are constrained to say that he not only misrepresents, but insults, the Republican party of Lancaster county.

If the party believe in the Pendleton theory of paying the National debt, and believe in the election of the Copperhead candidates, they cannot be superior to him in the present contest, and while the Radicals are differences on minor subjects, they cannot, without a sacrifice of self-respect, sincerely permit him to hold a position of leadership in the party.

The editor of the Lancaster says:

GOV. SEYMOUR'S POPULARITY.

The Journey of Gov. Seymour from

New York to his home in Ohio, on his return from the National Convention, was an absolute "triumphal march," affording a contrast to the absence of enthusiasm in regard to Gen. Grant, which is as remarkable as it is significant. At every town on the route, the people were turned out to meet him, cannon were fired, bells rung, bands played, flags waved, and all the demonstrations which indicate great personal popularity were manifested. At Uca, the place of his residence, the gratification of the citizens at his nomination was equally expressed. The whole community seemed to have gathered at the depot, and the reception they gave him was one of the wildest and most heartfelt enthusiasm. Party lines were for the moment buried, and many of the most valuable and high talents in the most in paying their regards to the great statesman whom destiny has chosen to lead the Democratic hosts to victory. A curious feature of the day was the ringing of all the church bells, showing more clearly than any human tongue could express, the reverence felt for him, and the high regard in which he was held as a Christian man and a sincere patriot. Gov. Seymour was much affected by these spontaneous marks of public affection, and could only make a brief speech of thanks, before retiring to the privacy of his own household.

THE FEELING IN BUSINESS CIRCLES.

The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says:

The inflammatory tone of the speeches in Congress with reference to the Southern governments and the principles of the Republican party are superior to any individual or individual, and however reluctantly we may be forced to acknowledge it, we are compelled to say that it cannot maintain its self-respect except by an admission of total repudiation of the position he has assumed.

In another part of the same paper appear two communications on the same subject, both from prominent Republicans, the one a soldier and the other a statesman, both of whom are outspoken than the Inquirer editor, as the following extracts will show:

"Charly led us to suppose, at first, that the story was a huge joke, but we are no longer at liberty to credit the supposition. The painful conclusion is forced upon us that our time has been wasted, and that we have been deceived. The painful conclu-

DRIVING SWEET POTATOES.

The extreme difficulty of keeping sweet potatoes in good condition, especially in the markets and storerooms, has led to constant changes of method and moisture, fully appreciated by housekeepers and dealers in vegetables. The wonderful production of this excellent in the South, and its great value as a cheap, nutritious and favorite food of all classes, has led to the desire to keep it in good condition, and to the use of the "driving" method, which is now more available as a food product.

Dr. C. Marshall, in the Vicksburg Democrat, Sept. 4th, 1887, asked: "Can't sweet potatoes, which our soil and climate are so wonderfully adapted to produce, be cut up into thin slices and so dried that they might be as easily transported to the North, and be as available as a food product?"

He said, "I have been thinking of this for some time, and have been experimenting with it. I have found that it is possible to do so, and that the result is a product which is as good as the original, and which is as easily transported as any other food product. I have been thinking of this for some time, and have been experimenting with it. I have found that it is possible to do so, and that the result is a product which is as good as the original, and which is as easily transported as any other food product."
